

Thomas Wüthrich

Member Advisor Board

Thomas has launched his career in the hospitality- & tourism-industries in the late 90ies at the Marketing Department of Switzerland's national carrier Swissair. In 2002, he joined MCI, today the worldwide leading international congress-, event- and association-management group. Initially, Thomas was based in Zurich, where he served, since 2008, as Managing Director. Four years later, he moved to Stockholm to head MCI's operations in the Nordic countries. And in 2017 Thomas transferred to Berlin, as Managing Director for MCI Germany and its subsidiaries in Düsseldorf, Hamburg, Munich, Nuremberg, and Stuttgart.

Thomas Wüthrich, CMM MPI, collated a substantial knowledge of the international MICE- and Event-Management-industries, he co-edited a leading industry-text book in Switzerland, and he served on several boards and international working groups. Thomas is also member of the MCI Global Management Board.

www.mci-live.de

(138 words)